"The visiting committee distributed $300 of the funds of the association, paying rent and giving fuel and food to 200 familites. Five hundred garments were distributed and employment was found for fifteen persons by the committee. It has been suggested that our association abandon this branch of the work, as being especially the field of the Associated Charities. The benefits of the home are bestowed without regard to creed or denomination. Women of all beliefs or of no belief, of all churches or no church, who reed help, are assisted so far as their deserts or our means will permit. We have but one great need, and that is more room."

The receipts of the association for the year were $8,618.75, including a government appropriation of $4,000, the balance being obtained from private funds, boarders, admission fees for life members, and church collections. The total expenditures of the year were $7,991.46, leaving a balance on hand of $627.29.

Report of Secretary of Woman's In-stitution in This City. From the annual report of Mrs. Abbie B. Clift, secretary of the Woman's Christian Association, covering the past fiscal year it appears that 339 women and twelve chil-dren have been admitted to the home during the year. Among these nearly all con-ditions of life and nearly all ages were represented. A general classification of them would show: Women out of employment and seeking work; pension claimants who FAST EXPRESS SERVICE.
